RE: US BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION

Dear Chief Justice Rabner:

This letter is a request that the New Jersey Supreme Court re-open its investigation of US Bank National Association, closed by an Order signed by Judge Walter R. Barisonek, dated September 21, 2011. (The below links are related to that Order and the New Jersey Supreme Court's 2010 examination of lending institution within the State.)

I respectfully submit that when digging up a body in a cemetery, it helps to know the identity of the deceased. I have reasons to believe that one person well able to assist The Court in that endeavor is Michael Ackerman, Esq., Managing Partner of Zucker Goldberg & Ackerman.

Mr. Ackerman has misused US Bank National Association trusts as a graveyard or dumping ground for "problem" mortgages. A fine-tuned examination by The Court may unveil why certain mortgages are deemed "problems", and in the process uncover a whole new level of dirt ! In essence, US Bank National Association trusts have been used as off-shore Laundromats !!!

I might add that I am more than disappointed , but not shocked that I was never contacted regarding my August 23, 2011 Complaint to this Court regarding -

- 1) Leonard B. Zucker, Esq.
<http://www.martindale.com/Leonard-B-Zucker/1104566-lawyer.htm>
- 2) Richard P. Haber, Esq.
<http://www.martindale.com/Richard-P-Haber/167906528-lawyer.htm>
- 3) Anthony J. Risalvato, Esq.
<http://www.martindale.com/Anthony-J-Risalvato/167906530-lawyer.htm>
- 4) Steven D. Krol, Esq.
<http://www.martindale.com/Steven-D-Krol/1113157-lawyer.htm>

(See My letter is posted on <http://HurtingHomeOwners.com> )

Even so, this Court may want to look even closer at the use and misuse of US Bank National Association trust instruments by Mr. Ackerman and others similarly situated.

Thanks in advance for your thorough investigation into this matter. I will be happy to appear and answer questions related to this request.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Bailey
